

User journey

Your name Damien

Date 10/03/2019

User action

User clicks on e-mail link and lands on education quiz site.

1 Start

User action

After reading factoid, user decides to proceed with the quiz and clicks the button.

2

User action

User is presented with the first question and reads the possible answers.

3

User action

User selects their chosen answer and are presented with a new question.

4

System response

DOM content loaded.
render landing view.
retrieve and render "factoid".
listen for subscribed click event.

System response

click event published.
quiz & question views are requested.
data set searched for random question.

System response

quiz & question views rendered and populated with question data.

System response

click event published prompting new question data to be rendered.
answer string returned to model for verification and scoring.

User action

The user clicks on the option to select their final answer.

5

User action

The user is presented with their score as well as details of any questions which were answered incorrectly.

6

User action

The user clicks the button to return to the home page and restart the quiz.

7

User action

8 End

System response

published click event from answer view completes count and initiates result page view.

System response

results view rendered and populated with score data and incorrect answers data.

System response

return to home click event published which initiates reset of view and redirects to landing page.

System response

Dom content loaded.
landing view rendered with new random factoid.